Metropolitan Housing Trust (MHT), trading as MTVH, announces appointment of new Chief Financial Officer (CFO)

MTVH is pleased to announce the appointment of Duncan Brown as its new CFO. Duncan will assume the responsibilities of CFO from 1 August, immediately after the retirement of Ian Johnson, the current CFO.

Duncan Brown is currently CFO of Vivid Housing and brings experience gained from a career of senior finance roles in the HA sector.

Mel Barrett, Chief Executive of MTVH said: "Strong finances are the foundation for achieving our mission to provide people with decent homes and the chance to live well. Duncan's track record in delivering financial resilience, unlocking funding at scale, and supporting strategic development aligns powerfully with our ambitions for the years ahead. My colleagues and I look forward to working closely with Duncan to realise the potential of the additional funding announced in the government's spring Spending Review and deliver the new affordable homes that can help solve the housing crisis. "
